

《Follow-ups》

PCR Test is administered at Sky

When tested 'negative'

If tested ' Positive '

We will contact you.
You may receive the test result either by postal mail (¥550) or visit clinic in person to receive the result.

Public health office

We will contact the public health office since obligated. We will disclose your personal information with to the public health office.

The public health office will contact you directly.
Please follow the instruction given by the public health office.