

《Follow-ups》

PCR Test is administered at Sky Clinic

We will disclose your personal information to Chinese Embassy.

Chinese Embassy

When tested 'negative'

if tested 'Positive'

We will contact you.
You may receive the test result either by postal mail (¥550) or visit clinic in person to receive it.

Public health office

We will contact the public health office since obligated. We will share your personal information with the public health office.

The public health office will contact you directly.
Please follow the instruction given by the public health office.